

AWARENESS

As a visitor, you are part of this event and thus share responsibility for the well-being of others.

We live in a predominantly white, heteronormative society, and no social space is free from societal power dynamics.

However, we want to collectively create a discrimination-sensitive context where everyone can feel as comfortable as possible.

Awareness means having an understanding of your position and privileges, being mindful of your boundaries, and respecting those of others. This also applies to photography and filming; everything that happens before and after the live act are private moments. We would therefore ask you to obtain the consent of the recognisable persons in these situations.

Awareness also means not closing yourself off to oppressive power structures, even if you don't feel affected.

None of us are truly free until all of us are free.

This means:

We want to approach each other with care, respect, and on an equal footing. Anti-Semitism, anti-Islam, racism, ableism, sexism, sizeism, queerphobia, and other forms of discrimination are not tolerated in any way.

Affected individuals decide for themselves where an assault begins.

If you experience or witness an assault, feel uncomfortable, or need assistance, you can contact the Awareness Team.

We can be identified by the pink ribbon and are located on the first floor of the skyscraper in the "Wohlfühl-Oase" (D 1.02) or around the campus.

If you would like to tell us afterwards about an incident you have experienced or observed, we can be contacted at the following email address. You are also welcome to contact us with suggestions or feedback on the Awareness Concept: events.hgk@fhnw.ch

CONCEPT

This concept is based on an awareness concept that was developed by students and employees of the BA Process Design at Hyperwerk, HGK Basel. It was adapted for this occasion by students of the BA Fashion Design, HGK Basel, in collaboration with the Event Team HGK. You can find more sources and credits on our website.
